If I understand the attachments correctly, what is involved here is what CIA has to do should it decide to destroy or alter a property listed as historic. Wouldn't that call our legal wizards into action? And real estate experts. Do you still want me to be the contact point? If so, I'll write to Chairman Stevens and say that I'll be glad to relay anything from his council to the correct people. 1st YES PLEASE.

ADVISORY COUNCIL
ON HISTORIC PRESERVATION

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20240

DD/M&S 73-2983

July 12, 1973

Lt. General Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

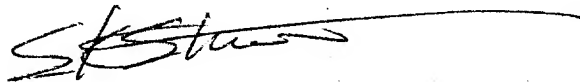

The Advisory Council on Historic Preservation was established pursuant to Section 201 of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (80 Stat. 915, 917). Among its other statutory mandates, the Council is responsible for commenting on Federal undertakings which will affect any properties listed on the National Register of Historic Places. The number of properties listed on the National Register is expected to increase rapidly as Federal agencies should have completed their inventories of historic resources by July 1, 1973, pursuant to Section 2 of Executive Order 11593 of May 13, 1971, "Protection and Enhancement of the Cultural Environment." Therefore, the Advisory Council is anxious to develop a working relationship with Federal Departments and Agencies that will afford the best opportunity for expeditious and cooperative fulfillment of mutual responsibilities for our national heritage.

As you may be aware, the Secretaries of Agriculture, Commerce, Housing and Urban Development, Interior, Transportation, and Treasury and the Attorney General, are members of the Advisory Council, as are the Chairman of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, and the Administrator of General Services Administration. When these Departments present a matter for Council comment, all communication is directed to the Secretarial designee, who coordinates the activities of the various Agency and Bureau heads within his Department. This method, which provides the Council a single point of contact with an appropriate degree of authority, has been most effective for both the Council and the Departments.

Because your Department is not represented on the Advisory Council, we would appreciate your designating an individual who will be similarly responsible for coordinating activities between the Council and your Department.

For your information we have enclosed copies of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966, Executive Order 11593, and the Council's compliance procedures. If you have any questions or wish to discuss this matter, please contact Robert R. Garvey, Jr., Executive Secretary, Advisory Council on Historic Preservation.

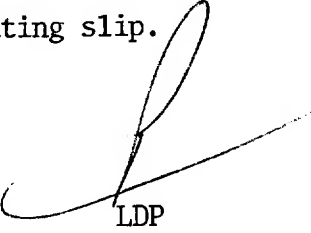

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'S. K. Stevens', with a long horizontal flourish extending to the right.

S. K. Stevens
